Individuals certified by CFP® Board have taken the step to demonstrate their professionalism by voluntarily submitting to the CFP® certification process that includes thorough education, examination, experience and ethical requirements. The CFP® is issued by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. Prerequisites require a designee to hold a Bachelor's degree (or higher) from an accredited college or university as well as three years of full-time personal financial planning experience. In addition, candidates must complete a CFP-board registered program (or hold an accepted designation, degree or license) and take the CFP Certification examination. Chartered Retirement Planning CounselorSM (CRPC®)

The Chartered Retirement Planning CounselorSM (CRPC®) program is offered through the College for Financial Planning® and focuses on the pre- and post-retirement needs of individuals, asset management, estate planning, and the entire retirement planning process using models and techniques from real client situations. Candidates must pass an end-of-course, multiple-choice examination that tests their ability to synthesize complex concepts and apply theoretical concepts to real-life situations. Candidates must sign and return the Code of Ethics, which includes agreeing to abide by the Standards of Professional Conduct and Terms and Conditions. Every two years individuals must renew their right to continue using the CRPC designation by completing 16 hours of continuing education.

Derick Walters is a registered representative of LPL Financial, a FINRA-registered broker-dealer. LPL Financial is a financial services company engaged in the sale of investment products. IHT professionals who effect transactions for advisory clients may receive transaction or commission compensation from LPL Financial. The recommendation of securities transactions for commission creates a conflict of interest in that IHT is economically incented to effect securities transactions for clients. Although IHT strives to put its clients' interests first, such recommendations may be viewed as being in the best interests of IHT rather than in the client's best interest. IHT advisory clients are not compelled to effect securities transactions through LPL Financial.

Derick Walters is the owner of DW Wealth Management, a business entity for tax purposes only.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

Derick Walters may receive additional compensation through his business activity described in Item 4 above.
